Bibliography of Early Nonconformity

The work of re-cataloguing all the works in the Library down to 1800, bearing on Protestant Dissent, begun in 1947, has now been completed. The Library is indebted to the Pilgrim Trust and to the Hibbert Trust for making this work possible and to Miss G. Woodward, who has carried it through from start to finish.

The catalogue has a threefold arrangement, (1) by author, with full cross references and numerous identifications of anonymous writers, (2) by date, and (3) by subject. Although it is unlikely that any one library contains all, or anything approaching all, the literature of English Dissent, the present catalogue, despite its inevitable gaps, approximates to a bibliography of the subject and affords a useful guide to the literature of English religious history for the centuries covered. It is hoped that the 144 files of the catalogue will soon be housed in the new Catalogue Room above the general card catalogue.

Armitage Murals

The murals painted in 1871 by Edward Armitage, R.A., in University Hall as a memorial to H. Crabb Robinson, whose many friends and literary acquaintances are depicted in more than life-size monochrome, have been causing the Trustees anxious thought. Cleaned and restored many years ago they have again become darkened with age. Attempts at cleaning, made recently, have not been a success and the Trustees have reluctantly come to the conclusion that the murals have had their day and must be painted out. Plans are in hand for renovating the Hall and surrounding it with book-cases, and, to maintain continuity with the past as far as possible, arrangements have been made for the excellent reproductions of the murals, made when they were in their first freshness, to be set in panelling at the end of the Hall.

Church History Room

The room above the new Catalogue Room has been furnished for use by readers in Patristics and related subjects. We are indebted to the two sons of the late Rev. William James Payling Wright, who, through the Friends of Dr. Williams's Library, have undertaken the work as a memorial to their father who was for many years a reader of the Library and one of the Trust's early divinity scholars.

Subscriptions

When in 1950 it was found necessary to require a subscription from readers borrowing books from the Library, a concession was made that small-users (borrowing fewer than six books a year) might renew at half-a-guinea instead of a guinea. The Trustees have now decided that this concession must be withdrawn as from July next year. Subscriptions will now be standardised at £1 1s. (10s. 6d. for clergy and ministers) and £3 3s. for corporate subscriptions.

Gifts to the Library

The library is indebted to the Friends of Dr. Williams's Library for the purchase of a number of early seventeenth- and eighteenth-century pamphlets and also for the purchase of a manuscript volume of records gathered by Thomas Jollie (1629-1703). The records were known to Joseph Hunter early in the last century, who took copies which are now in the British Museum, and from which some items (not the most important) were transcribed in the Transactions of the Congregational Historical Society (vi. 164-173). The subsequent history of the volume was not known until it came on the market at an Antiquarian Bookseller's and was purchased for the Library. The papers not only throw further light on the part played by Jollie in Lancashire's religious history in the time following the Restoration (of which much is known from the Chetham Society Remains—vol. ns. 33), but they also contain records and letters bearing on the efforts made by Presbyterians and Congregationals to reach an accommodation in London and Bristol in the years before and after the Revolution of 1688.

To Mr. L. G. Montefiore we are indebted for the deposit in the keeping of the Trustees of the minute books of the London Society for the Study of Religion from its foundation in 1904 to 1947. The names of Baron von Hugel, Philip Wicksteed and of Mr. Montefiore's father amongst the early members of the Society would alone make these records remarkable. In addition Mr. Montefiore has deposited a paper by him recounting briefly the history of the Society.

Another interesting Manuscript addition given by Mr. J. A. Willis is a copy of the printed volume of the Pseudo-Augustini Quaestiones (Corpus Scriptorum Ecclesiasticorum Latinorum, vol 50) edited by Alexander Souter with Souter's MS. additions incorporating the collation of a Paris MS. of the Quaestiones.

The Trustees are indebted to New College, London, for the gift of a number of portraits, including portraits of Sir John Doddridge, Sir Arthur Hazelrigg, Edward Montague, 2nd Earl of Manchester, and Oliver St. John. They are also indebted to the Executors of Mrs. Ethel C. Moore for a set of framed copies of the murals of H. Crabb Robinson's friends surrounding University Hall.

During the year the Trustees have received a bequest of £25 under the will of the late Florence Pertz, for long a reader of the Library. They are grateful also to the Wallace Alfred Smith Trust for a further grant towards the upkeep of the Library.

The Library is also indebted for gifts of books from: Mrs. J. F. Andrews, Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Arnold, Rev. G. R. Beasley-Murray, Dr. Israel Brodie, Mr. W. E. Campbell, Mr. Cedric Collyer, Mr. A. M. Cox, Rev. J. H. Crehan, Mr. Donovan Dawe, Rev. H. R. Dolphin, Rev. J. W. Dumble, Brother George Every, Mr. Claud F. Fothergill, Mr. Henry Wilder Foote, Lt.-Col. W. A. Garstin, Rev. Colin R. Garwood, Mr. J. G. Gillam, Dr. Rose Graham, Mr. A. H. N. Green-Armytage, Mr. C. R. J. Griffin, Mr. Stanley Griffin, M. Jean

Lang, Mr. Percy Long, Dr. Douglas McKie, Mr. J. F. MacLear, Miss Dora Marsden, Rev. J. F. Mozley, Dr. G. F. Nuttall, Mrs. A. E. Pickvance, Mr. Alfred H. Powell, Dr. J. Rabinowitz, Mr. A. W. S. Tibbutt, Mr. J. E. Tucker, Mr. J. P. W. M. van Zutphen, Rev. A. R. Winnett, Miss G. Woodward; and also from the following organizations: The American Unitarian Association, the Baptist Union, the Beacon Press, the British Museum, Messrs. Charles Skilton, Ltd., the College of the Bible (Lexington, Kentucky), the Congregational Union, the Council for the Tercentenary of the Resettlement of the Jews in the British Isles, the Epworth Press, Glasgow University, the Guildhall Library, the Haji Anisur Rahman Memorial Society, the Historical Foundation (North Carolina), the Institute of Germanic Languages and Literature, the Institute of Historical Research, the Jewish Historical Society, Jews' College, the John Rylands Library, the Joseph Rowntree Charitable Trust, the Liberal Jewish Synagogue, the Library of Congress, the London Society of Jews and Christians, the University of London Library, the National Museum of Wales, the Orthodox Christian Educational Society (Chicago), Penguin Books, Ltd., the Society of Brothers, the Southern Baptist Convention (Tennessee), the Urantia Brotherhood (Chicago).

Microfilms

During the year additions have been made to the collection of microfilms: (1) a copy of the Records of Thomas Jollie (mentioned above); (2) a copy of early Devonshire minutes known as "Gilling's Transactions," being records which Isaac Gilling, 1662-1725, kept of meetings of Ministerial Associations he attended in the West Country from 1691 to 1717; (3) a copy of the Minutes of the London Provincial Assembly, 1647-1660, reproduced by the kindness of the President and Fellows of Sion College, in whose keeping the manuscript now is.

Periodicals

The Journal of Semitic Studies and the International Bibliography of the History of Religions have been added to the list of periodicals taken in the Library.

Friends of Dr. Williams's Library

The 1957 annual lecture, on October 22nd, will be delivered by Dr. Norman Hunt, his subject being "Walpole and the Protestant Dissenters."

The Trust includes a number of benefactions for which the founder, the Rev. Daniel Williams, D.D. (b. 1643, d. 1716), made provision in his will. The most important of these is now the Library, which has been greatly enlarged and developed since his time.

Besides the Library, the benefactions include grants of money to poor ministers, and to widows of ministers; grants of books to ministers; bursaries to undergraduate students for the Protestant Dissenting Ministry at the University of Glasgow; post-graduate divinity scholarships for students for the Protestant Dissenting Ministry in approved Theological Colleges.

The Trustees also give bursaries and scholarships to be held at the Presbyterian College, Carmarthen. They contribute to the maintenance of the Dr. Williams' School for Girls (Secondary) at Dolgelley, North Wales. For information as to the institutions named in this paragraph, application should be made to them locally, and not to the Secretary of the Trust.

Form for Bequests to the Library

I GIVE and bequeath to the Trustees at my death of the charity known as Dr. Daniel Williams's Charity of Gordon Square in the County of London the sum of £ free of all duty and I declare that the receipt of any three of such Trustees shall be a sufficient discharge for the said legacy. I direct such Trustees to stand possessed of the said sum of £ upon trust to apply the same in their discretion in the purchase of books to be given by them to the said charity to be held as an addition to its library or to apply the same in assisting the maintenance of the said library and I DECLARE that the said sum of £ is not to merge in the funds of the said charity but is to be held upon a separate and independent charitable trust.

An alternative form of bequest for use where a testator is giving a capital sum which is to be retained as an endowment fund may be had on application to the Secretary.

FRIENDS OF DR. WILLIAMS'S LIBRARY

Support for Dr. Williams's Library is urgently needed. Post-war costs have made it impossible to maintain an adequate library service without additional resources, and the facilities offered by the Library for research students have long stood in need of development. To meet these needs the FRIENDS OF DR. WILLIAMS'S LIBRARY was founded in 1946, and the society invites all who are interested to collaborate in its work.

Full particulars together with forms for the payment of subscriptions by Banker's Order and under Deed of Covenant may be had on application from the Secretary at the Library.
